

WEBINAR

November 23rd, 2020 at 12:45 CET via Google Meet (<https://meet.google.com/wuc-bqgu-ire>)

The American Presidential Elections, the Evangelical Church, and Donald Trump

In the most recent US Presidential Elections, 75% of the White evangelical Christians who voted cast their ballot for Donald Trump. While their support may not have been enough to re-elect the president, evangelicals still see such a representation in the figure of Trump. How has, then, life, religious liberty and biblical justice shaped and influenced politics in the States?

Mary Lynn Parnell

Greater Europe Mission's
Regional Leader

Tim Stamps

Regional Leader in Catalonia for IMB

Israel Planagumà

Translator for Christianity
Today magazine

Juan M. Gómez

International Representative for SERGE in Spain

Moderated by Maria Calvet, third-year Global Communication Management student within the frame of Global Governance and Religion at Blanquerna.

Confirm assistance to mariaca5@blanquerna.url.edu & join for free via Google Meet: <https://meet.google.com/wuc-bqgu-ire>